MANY CONTESTS FOR OFFICES IN MARCH

Several Candidates File at 11th Hour

Filed Monday forenoon, a few hours before the deadline, the nomination papers were for candidates

The new candidates include Atty. William F. McClellan, who has been prominent in town meetings; John H. Shea, architect; Henry R. DeForest, a veteran of both World Wars; John A. Carr, Jr., and John L. Delay, past State Department Commander of the American Legion. Delay will oppose J. Edwin Kimball, veteran member of the board of Cemetery Commissioners. Arlington Youth Helped Wipe Out Cave of Japs

The Infantry officer's voice cut the air like a knife as it came through the loudspeaker: "All right, come out of those caves if you don't want to be blown out or burned out."

Doughboys of the 81st Infantry Division shifted nervously in their firing positions behind rocks and trees on Angaur Island, their eyes riveted on the mouths of the caves where the Japs were hiding. Several minutes passed, but no Japs came out.

"So we went in," said Pte. Robert Manning of Arlington. "We (Please Turn to Page Seven)

Need For WAC Recruit Stressed

Although a WAC recruiting team has been on duty in Arlington for several days, the number of new recruits has not come up to expectations.

With 30,000 casualties a month flooding Army Hospitals the need for hospital technicians is unlimited. While every facility is being taxed to give these wounded men the care they require, the hospitals are understaffed and the Surgeon-General has issued a call for 8,000 women to enlist at once in the Women's Army Corps to serve in the Medical Department.

Approximately 3,500 WACS are already at work in Army general hospitals today. Soon, another 1,000 now in training will go on duty, but this is not nearly enough to fill the minimum need of Army hospitals in the United States.

The Army's goal is a unit of 100 WACS to every thousand beds in Army General Hospitals in this country. Each unit will be made up of several platoons. Each platoon will number fifteen WACS. Although the primary need is for medical and surgical technicians, any woman with clerical aptitude should also apply, for each WAC unit will need several women with clerical ability.

Those who qualify as technicians will receive the rating of Technicians Fifth Grade immediately upon completion of their basic and medical training. Any woman,

Purchase of Land to Be Acted Upon

Fifty-eight articles — 18 more than last year—will be included in the warrant for this year's annual Town Meeting, it became known this week after the deadline for filing articles with the board of selectmen had been reached. The annual town election is set for March 5 and the first session of the Town Meeting for March 14.

In addition to the routine articles which appear on the warrant each year, including those calling for appropriation for Town outlays and expenses, this year's warrant will include several articles on which lively debate is almost a foregone conclusion.

Investigation Sought
Most unusual will be the final article in the warrant, which was requested by 12 registered voters.

This article asks that a committee of five be appointed "to investigate the conduct and administration of the Cemetery Department by the Cemetery Commissioners for the years 1943, 1944 and 1945." The committee would be called upon to report its findings to the next annual Town Meeting. Two members of the committee would be appointed by the chairman of the Republican Town Committee and two by the chairman of the Democratic Town Committee. Nine articles calling for the abandonment as public ways of the nine private ways which had been accepted by the Town in 1942 and on which no construction has been done. The law provides that the construction of a street accepted by a town must be started within two years after the street has been accepted. Appropriations for the streets involved did not include labor costs because of existence of WPA labor at the time. Since WPA no longer exists, the appropriations voted in 1942 would not cover the cost of constructing these nine streets.

The meeting will be asked to (Please Turn to Page Two)

He was graduated from Arlington High School in 1941 and was well known as a trumpet player.

UNITED FOR VICTORY

Portrait of a man
cashing in his War Bonds

BEFORE YOU decide to cash that War Bond—wait a minute.

For the last 3 years, you've been buying Bonds steadily—saving part of every dollar you earned.

You've formed the habit of saving.

You've been accumulating money against unforeseen troubles or a time of need.

You've been working to build up a nest egg—and by golly, you've got Uncle Sam helping you do it! Every time you put in $3, he will make it $4—if you hold your Bond to maturity.

You've been laying aside money to help safeguard your job after the war, and help guarantee a healthy, prosperous Country for us all.

You've been helping to fight inflation and to keep prices down.

Last, but by no means least, you've been sending your dollars into the fight—backing up G. I. Joe.

You don't want to undo all you've done. It just isn't smart. To say that it's cutting off your own nose is to put it very, very mildly.

DON'T cut off your own nose. Hang on to your War Bonds. Hang on to them till they come due—and meantime, buy some more!

Groups Are Invited to Sponsor Youths for Boys' State Plan

Last year, the State Department of the American Legion and its affiliated posts sponsored a Boys' State program at Amherst, the purpose of which was to acquaint young men with the advantages of good government.

Registration was limited to 300. Because of the enthusiastic response to the program, this year's plans will provide for 750 boys and sponsorship will be open to other interested organizations. Arrangements may be made to have a member of the Boys' State Committee present this program in detail by contacting R. A. Williams at 19A Wyman ter.

A. H. S. LOSES TO STONEHAM

Stoneham High School's hockey sextet took undisputed lead of the Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey League Saturday afternoon when it edged a stubborn Arlington High team, 3 to 2, at the Boston Garden.

Arlington did not give up, however, until after it had given Stoneham, undefeated in its last seven starts, a stiff battle. The teams were tied, 1-1, until Cogan scored a goal at 2:51 in the third stanza. Bob Murphy, Stoneham's all-around ice star, scored the deciding goal of the game at 7:45.

Bill Coveney scored both Arlington goals, his second coming just 29 seconds before the final bell.

Both teams had strong defenses with the result that only 10 shots were made in the first two periods.

The summary:

Stoneham—Whiston, g.; Livingstone, rd.; Flynn, id.; Murphy, c.; Clark, rw.; Roll, lw.

Arlington—Wells, g.; McLennan, rd.; Downing, id.; Coveney, c.; MacCutecheon, rw.; Sennott, lw.

Stoneham Spares—Cogan, Doherty, Gibson. Arlington Spares—Donahue, Collins, Mason.

First Period—Stoneham, Clark (Roll) 3:2; Arlington, Coveney (Donahue, Sennott) 7:36.

Second Period—No score.

Third Period—Stoneham, Cogan (McHenry) 2:51; Stoneham, Murphy (Clark) 7:45; Arlington, Coveney, unassisted, 9:31.

Ring, who is now serving his fifth terms as chairman of the Town Finance Committee, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Representative.

HALLAM T. RING

sentative from the 28th Middlesex District. Mr. Ring was a close runner-up to Mr. Sawyer in the primaries last summer.

Mr. Ring, a native Arlingtonian, attended the local schools after which he furthered his studies at Phillips Exeter, Harvard University, Boston University Law School and later at Boston University school of business administration and the University of Chicago. He was for some years manager of sales and advertising for large real estate developments and was connected with the building industry. He served as Tax Collector in Fort Myers, Florida, from 1927 to 1929, returning to Arlington shortly thereafter to become associated with the Ring Sanatorium where he was superintendent of maintenance before becoming administrator in 1935 and its president in 1936.

He has been a Town Meeting member since 1936 and a member of the Finance Committee since 1939, having served as chairman in 1941.

Several projects looking to better town government and personnel relations have been fostered by Mr. Ring through articles approved by the town for studies of "Classification and Wages of Town Employees" and the Committee on "Advanced Programming and Budgeting" whose first full report has just been published.

Mr. Ring has long been active in community activities, including Red Cross and United War Fund drives, Civilian Defense, Boy Scouts, Friends of the Drama, Boys Club and the Rotary Club and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Citizens Committee, Menotomy Royal Arch Chapter and the American Hospital Association.

Timely Topic for Bible Forum

Another interesting session of the Bible Forum is scheduled for next Sunday evening at the Robbins Memorial Town Hall when Norval Pease will speak on the subject, "Will the Jews Return to Jerusalem?"

Mr. Pease states that the purpose of this lecture is to show the teaching of the New Testament regarding the destiny of the Jewish race. "A real understanding," Mr. Pease declares, "of this topic will go a long way to insure a sympathetic attitude between races. The Bible Forum is not anti-semitic, nor does it oppose any race or creed."

An illustrated Bible lesson will be presented before the lecture at 7 o'clock. Dr. R. W. White, lyric tenor, of Melrose, will be soloist.

PLENTY OF CIGARETTES!!!!

They write, and they tell us—"Your trainmen make no effort to stop people from smoking in coaches, and tobacco fumes make my mother, my wife and my baby ill when they travel on your trains."

A large majority of our patrons, yes—even those who are habitual smokers, have said, and continue to tell us, they want our coaches free from smoking while they—and their families—travel.

Next time you ride one of our trains (which we hope will be frequently) and feel like a smoke, please help us make travel by train pleasant for everyone by going to the smoking car or remember there IS a shortage of cigarettes and save yours for enjoyment at the end of your journey.

Our trainmen are trying to enforce the NO SMOKING rule in coaches.

We will sincerely appreciate YOUR help.

RIGHT NOW—every day, our Conductors and Trainmen say cigarettes seem to be more plentiful, especially in the coaches in which we have signs reading—NO SMOKING.

"Cigarette shortage?" our train service employees inquire, with arched eyebrows. And then they add—"certainly not in the non-smoking coaches."

Half the passengers on some trains, they tell us, are apparently well supplied with "smokes" and seem to delight in igniting them, the while they look at NO SMOKING signs as they puff.

We provide cars especially reserved for those who enjoy smoking while they ride.

Complaints from passengers continue to mount.

FOUR YEARS OF SERVICE

National USO is celebrating its fourth anniversary on next Sunday. In cooperation with National USO's celebration, the Greater Boston USO Soldiers and Sailors Committee is having open house for all citizens in the greater Boston area. The public is invited to inspect the six greater Boston USO servicemen's centers and see what the boys are getting in the way of recreation and aid.

The Boston centers are located conveniently. The Bay State Buddies Club is on the Boston Common and will welcome visitors from two in the afternoon until seven in the evening Saturday and Sunday. The North Station USO is at 149 Staniford st.; the Atlantic USO at 641 Atlantic ave.; the Newbury Club at 117 Newbury st.; and the Ruggles st. USO (colored) at 5 Ruggles st. Besides these main centers, there are 15 affiliate centers all over Boston. Outside of Boston, Chelsea, Lexington, Hingham, Winthrop and Braintree are joining in holding open house during these two days.

These Greater Boston USO clubs and affiliates owe their very existence to the citizens of greater Boston, who every year contribute to their support when they give to the Greater Boston United War Fund. These clubs owe their ability to operate actively to the time and labor given generously by the volunteers of greater Boston.

The Greater Boston USO takes this opportunity, the fourth birthday of USO, to salute the citizens of Greater Boston on their interest, loyalty and cooperation. Arlingtonians who have supported financially the USO through the United War Fund may feel that they had a part in spreading cheer among our fighting men during the past four years.

A GOVERNMENT OF LAWS

Because of the wide interest in the much publicized Montgomery Ward case, the following excerpts from an editorial which appeared in Tuesday's Christian Science Monitor, are particularly timely and important. Says the Monitor:

"The United States still has a government of laws and not of men. The President cannot, as Commander in Chief, seize a citizen's property outside a theater of war except by due process of law. Employers and workers alike should obey the decisions of the War Labor Board, but nothing in the War Labor Disputes Act empowers the Government to take over the retail business of Montgomery Ward & Co."

"That is the gist of Judge Philip L. Sullivan's decision. One paragraph deserves to take its place beside the classic judicial defenses of individual freedom:

"The constitutional guaranties that protect the sacred rights, liberties and property of American citizens, from the humblest to the most exalted, still remain inviolate. These rights may not be transgressed with impunity nor disregarded because of expediency; neither may they be abridged nor suspended, even for a single moment, except in the manner and under the circumstances specifically provided by law."

"This is a healthy clearing of the air. The decision could be overturned either in the Circuit Court of Appeals or in the Supreme Court, but its basic positions are so well supported in law and in public opinion that it would be well for everybody concerned to act as if there would be no reversal. The biggest obligation to act falls on Congress."

HELP WANTED — FOR G. I. JOE

In every generation there are certain percentages of human beings who are emotionally vulnerable. Earlier or later in the course of their lives under the stress of ordinary daily living these vulnerable human beings have emotional difficulties. In the course of any generation, such breakdowns are spread out over a period of ten, twenty or thirty years because some men have their difficulties early and some have them late in life.

Therefore when we hear how many men have nervous breakdowns in training camps we should not conclude that military life is turning our population into a lot of neurotic cracks. It means only that, among the 15,000,000 men who by the end of this war will have served in the various branches of our armed forces, nervous and emotional upsets which would have occurred spread out over a twenty or thirty year period have all been precipitated within the short space of four or five years.

This confronts us with a huge immediate load of psychiatric casualties for whom proper care and treatment must be provided. It does not mean, however, either that we are a nation of "softies", or that military service produces mental illness.

The NEWS OBSERVES

Most important developments since the outbreak of World War II appear in sight with the Red Army reported within 40 miles of Berlin and the Yanks at the Siegfried Line from which Nazi troops have apparently withdrawn, while in the Pacific, Gen. MacArthur's men have liberated hundreds of captured Americans and are advancing rapidly towards Manila.

Meanwhile a conference of the "Big 3" somewhere in Europe appears imminent. Events in Europe are moving so rapidly that the windup of the war on that continent may be a matter of days.

The Arlington lodge of Elks is still collecting used books for the Merchant Marine. Donations of books will gladly be received at the Capitol Theatre. Help provide libraries for the men who see to it that war supplies to various battlefronts keep moving.

Mrs. Robert D'Unger of 92 Egerston road has passed along in the NEWS a snapshot of an English bulldog which she found in front of her home, with the suggestion that the rightful owner might call at the NEWS for the picture. Service insignias on the dog's blanket, and the background resembling the entrance to a barracks indicates that the picture might belong to a serviceman.

Arlington reached 201 per cent of its quota in the last War Loan drive the final progress report for Region 5 shows. The average reached by the communities in this region was 135 per cent. The Series E quota was also surpassed. Arlington's showing being 111 per cent for this type of bonds. The Region's average for this type bond was 101 per cent. All of which proves that Arlington can rightfully take pride in the showing it made during the last drive.

Keep your red flannels on, for half the winter is still to come. Weather data show that Jan. 25 marked the middle of the average heating season in Massachusetts, and further, that up to Jan. 15 this winter had been about nine per cent colder in the Bay State than the Weather Bureau's 42-year average.

"Warime coal and coke quotas cannot be increased without seriously hindering war activities or depriving other persons of their fair share," John M. Booth, acting regional representative of the Solid Fuels Administration for War at Boston, said this week. "Therefore, temperatures in homes, office buildings, hotels, apartment houses, stores and other establishments should be brought in line immediately with the 68-degree wartime maximum set by War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes."

The Middlesex County Farm Bureau, Inc., will hold a meeting in the Burlington Town Hall on Wednesday evening, at eight o'clock for the purpose of discussing important problems in agriculture. Victor N. Cluff, president of the Farm Bureau, says: "This is a real opportunity for the farmers in this area to meet together for the purpose of discussing these problems concerning dairy, poultry, vegetable and fruit."

Because the Town this year is not in a position to plow sidewalks, and since we have more snow than normally, it is the duty of home owners to see that the sidewalks abutting their property are clear of snow. This is especially true for the sake of school children going back and forth to school. Unless snow is shoveled off sidewalks, these children are forced to walk in the street. The icy conditions which have developed during the past week make it that more dangerous for pedestrians, since autos are more likely to skid. Residents of East Arlington seem to have been more particular about removing snow from their walks than have those living on the hills in the Heights. Let's all pitch in and clear our own walks.

In accordance with our policy of always making our readers needs our first concern, we are to publish Roger W. Babson's Weekly Authentic Statement each Friday. Mr. Babson has a record of giving factual and accurate information and sound advice. His prediction of the 1929 Stock Market Crash, his Year-end Business and Financial Outlooks and his appraisal of the War to date are concrete illustrations of his uncanny alertness to conditions and trends. LOCAL BRANCH OF RED CROSS ELECTS OFFICERS FOR 1945

The OPA Says

Operators of passenger cars were warned yesterday by the Office of Price Administration that they must have mileage rationing records to be eligible to apply for any gasoline rations.

In the recent re-registration of Arlington basic A ration holders, each registrant was issued a mileage rationing form. The form replaced the old tire rationing record on which a list of all gasoline rations issued to the vehicle was kept.

Without this important record, no motorist may be issued A, B or C supplemental rations. Many motorists do not understand the use of the record form and have lost or destroyed them.

Motorists who were not issued mileage rationing records or who lost or destroyed them should immediately apply to the War Price and Rationing Board for duplicates.

The Board will not issue supplemental rations, furlough or special rations for cars with basic A rations without presentation of mileage rationing records with applications.

Ration book holders should cross out the old registration number on the front of gas ration books and write in ink the 1945 number. It is not necessary to change registration numbers on coupons.

Kiwanians Hear Talk on Life Insurance

"Life Insurance gives a man a chance to carry on even if he isn't there," said McKinley Warren of Weston, a member of the Speakers' Bureau of the Boston Life Underwriters Association, in a talk before the Arlington Kiwanis Club last Thursday noon.

"If he lives to see his children educated, his life insurance will take care of him in his old age — will supplement his Social Security — be an anchor to windward if other plans and investments fail," said Mr. Warren.

The speaker continued "It is an arresting fact that more than 4/5th of the assets left by the average American at his death to his surviving family are the proceeds of his life insurance. It is also impressive that not more than 10% of men reaching 65 have means for comfort except through pensions, life insurance or annuities."

"So sound and effective are the principles of life insurance and annuities that our Government has used them in setting up national Social Security. Those covered by Social Security have a good base on which to plan their insurance estate — and a good start. For those not covered it is still more important that plans be made and put into operation."

"It is unfortunate that life insurance — and particularly planning and correlating life insurance with other plans of investment — appear complicated to most people. There is no good reason for this, for a reliable insurance man can readily explain the principles. And bearing in mind the vital facts of life, and hazards we all face, and the security we seek. Isn't the careful planning of his life insurance one of the most important of a man's duties?"

Speaking of the National Service Life Insurance, Mr. Warren said that it is up to the parents and friends of these boys to urge them to keep all or as much as possible of this insurance in force after they are discharged. He said, "It can be converted to permanent life insurance at better rates than commercial companies can give. In many cases it will be the difference of having some life insurance or no life insurance because many veterans will turn out later to be uninsurable."

Baptist Men's Class

Returning to the Men's Class of the First Baptist Church last Sunday after a short illness, Rev. Nathan W. Wood received an ovation as he approached the speaker's stand to deliver the third of the "Life of Peter" series of talks. The series will be continued next Sunday with the topic "Peter Goes Back to School."

Announcement was made that Salvy Cavichio, one of America's leading xylophonists, and Miss Beth Carey, well known reader, will feature the entertainment at the Valentine banquet to be held jointly with the women's Fellowship on Tuesday evening, Feb. 13.

Greetings were extended to Lt. Comdr. L. Curtis Foye, 88 School st., SK, 2/c, Robert E. Woodbine, 23 Eastern ave., Ens. Harold Metcalf, 44 Allen st., all of the Navy. Visitors included Fred Behn, 24 Higgins st.

The annual meeting of the Arlington Branch of the American Red Cross was held in the Junior Library Hall last Thursday evening.

After reports from the heads of committees, the report of the nominating committee was received and the following officers were elected:

Mrs. Carolyn B. Reed, chairman; Miss Caroline D. Higgins and Clifford R. Hall, 1st and 2nd vice chairmen respectively; Mrs. R. O. James, secretary, and Edward P. Clark, treasurer. New members of the board of directors are Mrs. Mark W. Bradford, publicity committee; Mrs. Edmund L. Frost, Mrs. Walter Crosby, chairman of the new Dietitians' Aides Recruiting Committee, Mrs. Robert Murphy, chairman of the Camp and Hospital Committee, and Mrs. Ascher Shapiro of the Nutrition Committee.

Following the business meeting Miss Sybella Knauth, a student at Radcliffe College, spoke of her experiences in an internment camp in Germany. She and members of her family were living in Leipzig when the war broke out, and were taken from their home and placed in a convent which had been turned into a camp for internees. She particularly stressed the delight with which American Red Cross boxes were received, and told how even the boxes themselves were used to make cupboards for personal belongings. Even the string was used to make slippers or to knit into mats. Later Miss Knauth and her family were allowed to return to Leipzig on parole.

Here they underwent a number of bombings which she described as terrifying beyond description. After her talk Miss Knauth was asked if she had ever seen Hitler and she replied that she had seen him once at a railway station and was surprised to see that he had red hair and blue eyes.

Arlington Youth

advanced cautiously, because the Japs had machineguns pointed out of the caves at us. I had my BAR (automatic rifle) ready for action. Several of the men with flame throwers moved up, covered by our rifle fire.

One of them fell wounded. Another stuck the nozzle of his flame thrower inside a cave and cut loose. A jet of fire shot inside, while the Japs within yelled. A Nip sniper fired at the soldier with the flame thrower. The bullet ricocheted off some rocks, a few inches from him.

Before the sniper could fire again, an infantryman ended him with a bullet. A Jap machine-gunner next turned his weapon on the flame thrower. A well-thrown hand grenade took care of him.

"By this time I was in a position where I could direct my fire into one of the caves," said Pfc. Manning. "I fired two magazines of ammunition and was reaching into a pocket of my cartridge belt for a third to reload my BAR when two Japs bolted out of the cave. They charged at me with fixed bayonets.

"I didn't know whether school was going to keep or not for a while. However, when the Japs were only about 20 yards away I got the magazine inserted and pressed the trigger. You could see their clothing jump where the bullets hit. Both Japs toppled over dead."

Four Weeks' Steady Action

The 22-year-old Massachusetts Infantryman described this and other episodes during four weeks of almost continuous action on Angaur Island. Interviewed at Letterman (General Hospital), San Francisco, after arriving back in the United States, he recalled how he was finally put out of action himself by a Jap sniper.

"We had cleaned about all the Japs off the island, except for a suicide detachment which was fortified in a sort of bowl surrounded by a coral wall. These Nips wouldn't give up and it required the better part of a day to knock them out. We did it chiefly with hand grenades and mortar fire.

"I had my BAR trained on a ledge, waiting for some Nip to stick his head up, when a Jap sniper hit me in the right thigh with a dum dum bullet. Later, I learned with considerable satisfaction that one of my buddies evened the score with that sniper."

Pfc. Manning, who has been awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for exemplary conduct in action against the enemy, received basic training with his Infantry Division at Camp Rucker, Ala. He has been in the Army 26 months, the last six of which were spent overseas.

The young Infantryman planned to spend a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Manning of 39 Dartmouth st. After that, he said, he is prepared to go back into combat "if my outfit needs me."

(Editor's Note: Roger W. Babson — pioneer in the field of business and financial statistics — is now a weekly contributor to the Arlington News. He will discuss postwar adjustments, business and investments, jobs and wages, land and building, living costs and retail trade, inflation and taxes. Comments from our readers will be appreciated.)

BABSON PARK, Fla., Feb. 2 — Postwar full employment depends upon keeping the national income up to $120 billions or more. This compares with a prewar figure of $80 billions. Some increase!

Preventing Unemployment

Three times in the past, the U. S. was up against a similar problem. (1) In 1845-8, following the Mexican War, there would have been a revolution in the U. S. except for the acquisition from Mexico of Texas and seven other states. (2) In 1874-9, following the Civil War, there would have been economic chaos except for the development of the railroads. (3) In 1919-23, following World War I, there again would have been an economic collapse, had not the "horseless carriage" saved the day.

To jack up national income 50% and prevent unemployment, some new great industry must be born, or some radical change must take place in Education. I believe that following World War II — some revolutionary change will take place in our system which now "Educates" 30,000,000 people and spends billions of dollars annually. Hence, I repeat that postwar employment depends upon our school committees.

Memories Vs. Brains

Here is my forecast: First, schools will give less attention to memory work and more to brain development. Such memory work as is given, should be concentrated on spelling, arithmetic tables and vocabularies which knowledge will help students get and hold jobs. Second, schools will give much more attention to training students to think and solve original problems — work which they dislike to do.

The above two changes would mean that students will take home more problems to work out, but fewer textbooks to read. The present craze of lugging home a mass of textbooks, each day, results in less thinking. Encyclopedias and reference books can displace memories; but nothing can take the place of brains. Employers can install machines to do everything but THINK. Hence, students should be taught to pioneer and create jobs, rather than to memorize and hunt jobs.

EMPLOYMENT AND EDUCATION

By Roger Babson

Need Of Good Habits

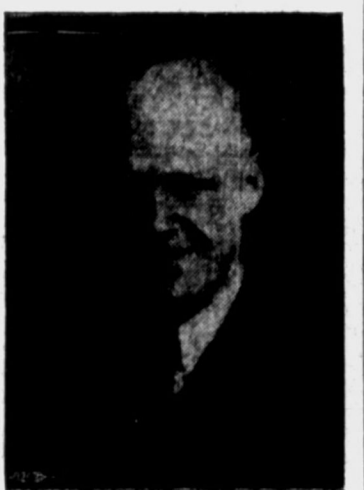

The third important change will be in helping students develop good habits and self-control. The student should be taught to diagnose and govern his own will, worry, anger, fear, etc. Upon these emotional traits, his health, happiness and economic value largely depend. Students will frankly be told that body, mind and soul are one; that work in the small laboratories of their private individual lives is more important than work in the large laboratories of schools and colleges.

School committees will realize that the student's greatest need is for self-discipline, so necessary to co-ordinate body, mind and spirit. Our present school system worked fairly well before the days of mass production and modern conveniences; but if continued along present lines will result in much post-war unemployment. The present universal fear of unemployment and the increasing demand for "security legislation" clearly indicate the present lack of a pioneering and independent character.

Spiritual Energy Necessary

Unfortunately school committees are mistaking material wealth, in terms of dollars, for human progress, in terms of usefulness. Christian philosophy, biology and psychology, as they relate to each student, are very important. The development of this spiritual field, following World War II, can be effective in preventing postwar unemployment as was the Louisiana Purchase following the Mexican War, the building of the railroads following the Civil War and the automobile industry following World War I.

Certainly, it can be shown that acquiring self-mastery to use one's energy constructively is in the self-interest of every student. This is the religious awakening for the need of which the world is today suffering. True intelligence needs spiritual energy, kindly feelings, insight and imagination. Find out the one thing in which each student is most interested. When this is discovered, it is easily possible to convince him the necessity of self-mastery. By so revising the educational program, school committees can both best serve the students' and the nation's future welfare.

Many Arlingtonians to Hear Dr. Gezork

Several Arlington men, most of them members of local church groups, have accepted an invitation to hear Dr. Herbert Gezork at the next meeting of the Jewish Community Center of Belmont and Watertown in Payson Hall, Cushing Square, Belmont, next Monday evening.

Dr. Gezork, who has spoken in Arlington on past occasions, is a noted traveler, author and former Christian Youth leader in Germany. He is now professor at Andover-Newton Theological School and Wellesley College. He will be introduced by Harry H. Susman, president of the club.

METROPOLITAN THEATRE

"Here Come The Waves", Paramount's three-star new musical comedy success, enters its second week at the Metropolitan.

Bing Crosby, in his first new picture since "Going My Way", is starred with Betty Hutton and Sonny Tufts in "Here Come The Waves". The story is a lively one that revolves about the dynamic Miss Hutton, who in a dual role plays a pair of twins. There are all sorts of hilarious complexities when the Messrs. Crosby and Tufts become romantically interested in both girls.

Arlington Girl Scout Report Shows Busy Year

Following are the highlights of the annual report made by Mrs. Kathleen Peirce, executive secretary of the Arlington Girl Scouts, at the annual meeting held recently. Reviewing the accomplishments of the past year, she said in part:

"Service to one's community is a part of Girl Scouting. It is one of the most important features of the Girl Scout program, this voluntary service to others. Our Girl Scouts plan together and decide where and when they can give service. According to the age of the girl and her abilities certain projects are worked out.

"Our Arlington troops have been very busy. Brownies have been giving service in their own homes and elsewhere. One Brownie group made cookies for soldiers at Devens — another sewed dolls for a children's hospital — still another made scrapbooks for a hospital — each group took its turn in making favors for Symmes Hospital and cheerful gifts for shut-ins. This service of tray favors for Symmes Hospital has been carried on by the Arlington Girl Scouts for many years — every holiday finds an attractive greeting from a Girl Scout on each patient's tray.

"Intermediate Scouts have done more advanced service. One troop made a blanket — another sewed for Evangeline Booth Hospital — another pieced a quilt — several bought or made Christmas gifts for needy families, for the Seamen's Home, for Fort Devens patients, and those at Bedford Veterans' Hospital. One troop had a garden and raised vegetables, canned them, and won a prize at the Arlington Garden Club flower show.

"One group sold Tuberculosis seals at the Post Office for two weeks before Christmas. For the past two years an English refugee child has had $30 per year to buy nourishing food, supplied by Arlington troops.

"The Senior troops have sold bonds and stamps at the Capitol Theatre five and six evenings a week for the past two years. The leaders and council members give one day a month to the bond and stamp sale at Woolworth's.

"Nearly every Girl Scout troop contributed to the Red Cross and to the Community Fund drive, a good beginning for future citizens. This fall all the troops collected clean, mended clothing for UNRRA. The Girl Scouts have a special interest in UNRRA through their World Association — and the fact that five American Girl Scout Executives have been loaned to UNRRA and are doing recreational and educational work with refugee children in Egypt and Palestine.

"The International aspect of Girl Scouting is brought to the attention of each Scout through the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund. Last year each Girl Scout in Arlington contributed a penny for each year she had lived. The pennies thus contributed, $52.98, have been added to the fund from all the Scouts in the United States. This fund has been used for relief for children throughout this war-torn world.

But, service to others is not all — Each Girl Scout in Arlington joined the troop to have fun and companionship. Fun and companionship are to be had under wise guidance. The Senior Scouts held a most successful dance last spring. Other groups had small dances — still other parties for children or their parents. Of course, beside parties there are weekly troop projects in crafts, homemaking, health, music, and dancing, etc. — all to add to the individual girl's growth — growth in skills, attitudes, appreciations, and ability to think and plan with her group.

"Last year we inaugurated the Wing Scout program for Seniors. This year the Mariner program is being explored by two groups.

"During the year 1944 all the troops took part in a get-together at Spy Pond Field and held two Scout's Own programs in the Town Hall — one on March 12, Girl Scout birthday, and another in November at the end of Girl Scout Week. The program at Spy Pond Field emphasized all phases of the Girl Scout program. The Scout's Own on March 12 featured the International side of Scouting. On November 2 the beauty of famous paintings was shown by living tableaux.

"Girl Scouts love adventures out-of-doors. Love of out-of-doors is built upon appreciation. Arlington Scouts are fortunate to have the use of a beautiful day camp site loaned to us by Mrs. Haskell Reed — Reed's farm. It is called, just over the Lexington line. There, last summer, 60 Girl Scouts learned campcraft, handcraft, and life together in the open. The campers had a happy time under the direction of Mrs. J. Philip Bower and her competent staff. They were fortunate to have the visiting nurses look after their health.

"For further experiences in camping, the Girl Scouts went to Camp Menotomy. This past season found a 35% increase in Arlington girls attending. One hundred ninety different girls enjoyed a total of 4445 camper days. A most efficient staff of 27 guided the ways of the campers.

This is the report of the Arlington Girl Scouts which includes over 100 adults. Without them we would not be able to organize troops. This fall we had the good fortune to get three more Brownie groups and two Intermediate groups. Leadership Two new intermediate groups were organized last spring. We hope we may find many more new leaders because we still have many children on our waiting lists begging for troops to belong to. During 1944 we have had 37 leaders come into the organization.

"May I express to you now — both experienced and new leaders my appreciation and that of the council for the wonderful work you are doing."

"Back of all the Girl Scouts and leaders is a sponsoring group of adults, the Arlington Girl Scout Council. They are responsible for Scouting in Arlington.

"You have heard of the program that has been promoted by Mrs. Justin McCarthy and her committee — also of the leaders and troops gotten together by Mrs. Swett and her committee.

"Mrs. Russell's Day Camp Committee has made possible the day camping program. Mrs. Yeames' Camp Menotomy Committee has been responsible for the upkeep of the buildings and 100 acres of woods of the camp. Last year a two room infirmary was built by means of a bequest from the Thompson Estate. Several husbands of committee members have given many hours of labor and valuable advice to make the camp possible during the labor shortage.

"The Finance Committee, Mrs. Pierce, chairman, again in 1944 put on a successful cookie sale. This yearly event is to raise the interest on Camp Menotomy bonds. The Council is responsible for training of all adults in the organization. This year 46 different adults had training, either given locally by the executive or regionally by the regional staff members.

"In addition to the duties of the above committees, the Council maintains a local office and staff."

Government Seeks More 'Stenogs'

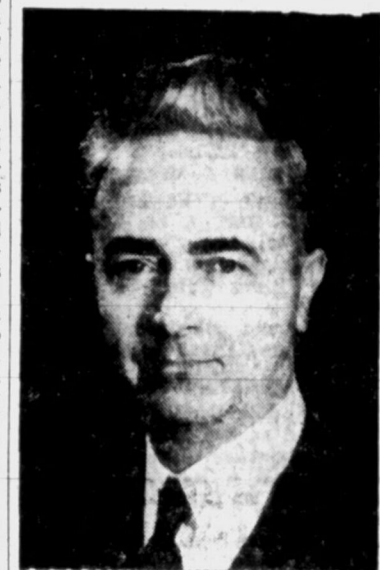

At the present time vacancies for stenographers exist at several local government agencies, the Bedford Army Air Base and the Veterans' Administration — both in Bedford.

Experience is not necessary. Applicants must pass an easy Civil Service examination. Salaries for these vacancies are $1752 per year, including the overtime on a 48-hour week. For those who accept appointment at the Veterans' Hospital and who do not wish to commute, room and board may be obtained for $40 per month. All interested applicants should write or contact the United States Civil Service Commission, Post Office and Courthouse Building, Boston 9, or telephone LI 6751, Extension 444, and make arrangements to take the Stenographers' Examination.

Those who are already employed in an essential industry at their highest skill need not apply.

Will Describe Work in Leprosy Colony

Edward R. Broad, New England secretary of the American Mission to Lepers, will speak at both sessions of the Bible School in the

EDWARD R. BROAD

Arlington Heights Baptist Church next Sunday. He will bring a message appropriate to each group — Beginners and Primary Departments at 10:30 a.m., and again at 12:00 o'clock noon when the other departments meet.

An outstanding feature at both sessions will be the presentation of a motion picture in technicolor entitled "The Healing of Myron". This picture was taken in the Cameroon section of Africa and tells the story of a little African boy and his life in a Christian leprosy colony. It is not gruesome in any sense and is enjoyed by both young and old alike.

Pullman shops at Buffalo, N. Y., and Richard Calif., worked all during 1944 without a single lost-time accident. A total of 2,650,104 man-hours were worked at the two shops.

"Mrs. Russell's Day Camp Committee has made possible the day camping program. Mrs. Yeames' Camp Menotomy Committee has been responsible for the upkeep of the buildings and 100 acres of woods of the camp. Last year a two room infirmary was built by means of a bequest from the Thompson Estate. Several husbands of committee members have given many hours of labor and valuable advice to make the camp possible during the labor shortage.

"The Finance Committee, Mrs. Pierce, chairman, again in 1944 put

State Guard Notes

Inspection of Arlington Company, Massachusetts State Guard, took place Monday evening. The inspecting officer was Maj. Gray Brockbank, accompanied by Regimental Medical Officer, Maj. William L. Davis.

This was followed by a review of the whole company in a demonstration of the latest riot formations.

A company non-com meeting was held at Company Headquarters the same evening immediately after drill. This was presided over by Capt. Frederick D. Reynolds. The programs for the month were discussed. Among these were preparations for the Battalion Non-Com meeting on Feb. 8.

Pvt. William F. Butler has the distinction of being the first member of Arlington Co. to get married while in the company.

Maj. Gray Brockbank

Maj. Gray Brockbank is in command of the 4th Battalion, 23rd Infantry, Massachusetts State Guard and 15th Company 23rd Infantry (Arlington Company) is under his general command. By virtue of this fact he is of interest to Arlington folks.

Maj. Brockbank is 47 years old, a native of Wakefield where he attended the public schools and where he now resides. By education he is an accountant, by occupation a businessman and by nature a soldier.

In World War I he served 18 months in France and took part in the battle of Chateau Thierry where he was wounded in action. He enlisted as a private with the 26th division and came out as 2nd lieutenant.

He is a member of Masons, I.O.O.F., and a past commander of the American Legion.

He is married and has four children, two sons and two daughters. His older son, John, is with the U. S. forces in France; his younger son, Robert, is in the Philippines.

In August, 1941, he was appointed second lieutenant in the Massachusetts State Guard. In September he was promoted to first lieutenant, in October to captain and in November of the same year to major.

He is an extremely able officer and a fair disciplinarian. His interest in his battalion is almost fatherly.

He is a very modest man, and while he carries his rank with dignity, there is not a strutting bone in his whole make-up.

Within five years after the war there will be some 100 television stations in active operation, says W. R. G. Baker, vice president of the General Electric Co.

Town Provides Coal in Fuel Emergency

Prepared to meet any critical fuel shortage insofar as possible, the Town of Arlington has already delivered soft coal to close to 40 homes in the current coal crisis. It was learned yesterday at the office of Robert L. Reid, solid fuel administrator for the Town.

The Town has engaged the services of a private contractor to deliver the fuel in quarter-ton lots to families that are absolutely without fuel. Soft coal, however, is the only type available for such orders.

Before the coal is delivered the applicant's need is investigated by either Building Inspector Paul Mossman or Herbert Hutchinson, sealer of weights and measures.

Families unable to obtain coal from their supplies may call ARL 1615 for an emergency delivery of coal.

Rev. Mr. Walter to Speak at Park Avenue Church

Rev. James E. Walter, associate secretary of the Missions Council of the Congregational Christian Churches, will be the guest preacher next Sunday at the Park Avenue Church.

He has been for several years a leader in the promotion of missionary interests among the churches of the New England states, and is especially well informed about the post-war opportunities and responsibilities of the Christian church, both in this country and around the world.

In addition to the service at 11:00 a.m., Rev. Walter will speak more informally, and answer questions at 3:00 p.m. The interested public is invited.

DEATHS

CORNELIUS C. FOGARTY

The funeral of Cornelius C. Fogarty, 84, of 30 Foster st., who operated a real estate business in Arlington for 20 years, was held Monday morning from the Saville and Kimball Chapel. A high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Agnes' Church.

Born in Ireland, he lived in Roxbury before coming to Arlington 20 years ago. He leaves no close relatives. Mr. Fogarty died last Friday in the Symmes Hospital.

THOMAS O. SUHR, SR.

Thomas Oscar Suhr, Sr., 62, painting contractor, died suddenly at his home, 13 Edith st., on Friday.

Born in Cambridge, he had been a resident of Arlington 14 years and was a member of the Church of Our Saviour (Episcopal). He was formerly head adjuster for an insurance company in Boston and in Philadelphia.

Kate Smith, popular singer, is one of the boosters of the March of Dimes drive. If you have not already given, send your check to any local bank. Collection boxes will not be picked up until after this week, W. Dale Barker, Arlington, chairman of this drive to help infantile paralysis sufferers, stated yesterday. The slogan is "Dimes from Children and Dollars from Parents." School children have already responded most generously, Mr. Barker said yesterday.

Small Army of Helpers Prepare Red Cross Drive

The enthusiastic hard work of a small army of volunteers is setting the pace for the 1945 Red Cross War Fund for Greater Boston.

More than 30,000 men and women, equal in strength to two Army divisions, are giving the spare hours from their offices, factories and housework to solicit their neighbors, pack and mail supplies, and do the score of other unglamorous jobs which spell victory for the $4,192,600 campaign.

Nowhere do the volunteers show more verve and energy than in the supply and shipping department in the basement of War Fund headquarters, 101 Milk st., Boston. Here a crew of nearly 500 men, women, and high school students are volunteering three and more hours weekly for the night and day task of sorting, counting and shipping the huge amounts of supplies needed by Boston Metropolitan Chapter workers.

The volunteers come from all parts of Greater Boston and from every type of home to work in the department. Many are housewives, some are retired businesswomen, others are girls who work all day in offices. Most of them have sons, brothers or relatives in the armed services and a few are kind of servicemen who have given their lives. The only common denominator of the group is their desire to serve in the war effort. Many of the night supervisors are girls who give one or two other nights weekly to volunteer office work at the Red Cross field headquarters at Fargo Barracks. Fourteen girls from the barracks have volunteered extra hours for the past two years in the War Fund campaigns, not only during the drive itself but throughout the remainder of the year when pledge cards are filed and preliminary work undertaken for the succeeding campaign.

In the 1944 campaign 470 volunteers in the shipping department gave a total of 9841 hours. Their example, emulated by thousands of other volunteers in the 22 chapters cooperating in this year's campaign, forms the solid backbone of the War Fund drive.

Men's Club to Meet

The monthly meeting of the Men's Club of the Church of Our Saviour will be held this evening. Supper will be served at 6:30. Present plans call for a letter to be sent to each member of the church now in the armed forces.

An explosion of mysterious origin completely demolished the home of Mrs. Ida Mattson, 81, and killed Mrs. Mattson and her son, Theodore J. Mattson, in South Dartmouth late Saturday night.

An early report that the explosion was caused by a bomb accidentally dropped from a service plane proved unfounded after experts had been unable to find any fragments of a bomb or projectile in the ruins of the wooden structure.

State officials joined Army and Navy officials in investigating the cause of the blast.
